

CONTINUED LEARNING DURING BREAK

MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENT RESOURCES

During this unexpected break from school instruction, there are simple, effective ways to continue learning. These activities are for students and their families to use as time allows. Because this resource contains live links, this page can also be found on the Middle School website, under the "Good News/What's Happening Tab."

TIPS & SUGGESTIONS

- Catch up on or review any assignments that were posted in Schoology prior to March 12.
- Organize binders/folders.
- Catch up on school-wide Leadership Lessons in Schoology.
- Make Digital Portfolio updates - present portfolio pages completed so far to family members.
- Be active each day - yoga, dance party, outside play.
- Practice your instrument.
- Cook a meal and record your stepsWork on community contest offerings, for example, the Rochester Area Literacy Council's Publishing Contest (<https://www.rochesterarealiteracycouncil.org/publishing-project.html>) or Earth Day Poster contest (K-6) (<https://www.nysenate.gov/eform/submit/earth-day>).
- Read the book Posted which is available for middle school students through the Sora App until April 16th. You can learn about the author, John David Anderson here. You can access the book here.
- Explore the complete School-wide Read website: <https://sites.google.com/palmacsd.org/posted-swr-pmms/home>
- Explore the free library available to you right now! Through the Sora App, you can borrow books on your Chromebooks, phones, tablets, and iPads. Follow the steps found here. Once you are in, you can add your public library to gain access to browse their catalog of ebooks, audiobooks and interactive books that they have online as well! You will need your library card number once you decide on an ebook/audiobook to borrow.
- View your MS library account at: <https://search.follettsoftware.com/metasearch/ui/62381>
  - Click on Login in the top right corner and gain access to your account using Google Sign-on. From there, you can check what books you have currently checked out/overdue and there are about 20 eBooks available for download that we own.
- Practice skills through iXL: <https://www.ixl.com/signin/palmac>
